Prepare for Tomorrow, Giving Help...Saving Lives

Hello,

Prepared volunteers are the backbone of any successful disaster or recovery plan. Training is a necessary part of any preparation, so this letter is to serve as a personal invitation to "Disaster Preparedness: Helping Your Community to Survive an Emergency." Below is the information for the course. Please refer questions to Molly Phillips at the United Way of the Midlands using the information below.

Disaster Preparedness 101: Helping Your Community to Survive an Emergency... is an introductory course in Disaster Volunteering. It allows volunteers to explore and become enriched and educated responders when their community experiences a disaster. The purpose of the course is to enable concerned citizens, in advance of a disaster to learn the skills necessary to provide voluntary services in their community.

OBJECTIVE:

Preparing volunteers to...

- Understand the definition of disaster
- Learn how disasters affects communities
- Understand disaster response concerns
- Know how disaster responses are managed
- Recognize ways you can volunteer in times of disasters
